Customer Service Practitioner LEVEL 2 APPRENTICESHIP

About the Role:

The role of a customer service practitioner is to deliver high quality products and services to the customers of their organisation.

Your core responsibility will be to provide a high-quality service to customers which will be delivered from the workplace, digitally, or through going out into the customer's own locality.

These may be one-off or routine contacts and include dealing with orders, payments, offering advice, guidance, and support, meet-and-greet, sales, fixing problems, after care, service recovery or gaining insight through measuring customer satisfaction.

You may be the first point of contact and work in any sector or organisation type.

Your actions will influence the customer experience and their satisfaction with your organisation.

You will demonstrate excellent customer service skills and behaviours as well as product and/or service knowledge when delivering to your customers.

You provide service in line with the organisation's customer service standards and strategy and within appropriate regulatory requirements.

Your customer interactions may cover a wide range of situations and can include face-to-face, telephone, post, email, text, and social media.

What is an apprentice?

What is an apprenticeship?

An apprenticeship is a real job where you learn, gain experience, and get paid. You're an employee with a contract of employment and holiday leave. By the end of an apprenticeship, you'll have the right skills and knowledge needed for your chosen career.

It can take between one and 6 years to complete an apprenticeship depending on which one you choose, what level it is and your previous experience. It's funded from contributions made by the government and your employer.

As an apprentice you'll:

learn and train for a specific job get paid and receive holiday leave get hands-on experience in a real job study for at least 20% of your working hours – usually at a college, university or with a training provider complete assessments during and at the end of your apprenticeship be on a career path with lots of future potential

Levels of an apprenticeship

Each apprenticeship has a level and an equivalent education level. You can start an apprenticeship at any level. Depending on the level, some apprenticeships may:

require previous qualifications such as an English or maths GCSE give extra training in the English or maths skills needed so you're at the right level

At the end of your apprenticeship, you'll achieve the equivalent education level.

For example, if you complete a level 3 apprenticeship, you'll achieve the equivalent of an A level.
